

this is preposterous and should not be allowed to happen! this is just another step towards the inevitable police state we are headed towards. the government should have no right whatsoever to tap communications.